

YMCA to Reveal 'Good Neighbor' Winner at Breakfast, Open House

With the spirit of neighborliness prevailing throughout, the Torrance YMCA will hold its annual Good Neighbor Breakfast and Open House Saturday.

Highlight of the program will be presentation of the YMCA "Good Neighbor" award at 10:30 a.m.

At this time, the YMCA will honor that person who has quietly and earnestly worked for the welfare of the community.

The Betty Thomas Studio and the Howard Wood PTA Mothersingers will provide continuous music. At every half-hour prizes will be awarded and from 11 to 11:30 a flapjack-eating contest will determine who earns the right to be called "Humphrey."

Breakfast will be served from 6 to 11:30 a.m. at the Y, 2080 Washington Ave. Tickets may be bought now or at the door.

Card Party

Torrance Women of the Moose held its Friendship Committee card party Wednesday at the Moose Hall.

Marge Baudin was chairman. Prizes for high scores were awarded for Pochle, 500, bridge, canasta and bunco. Door prizes and refreshments were offered.

Christian Science Lecturer Heard

Ella H. Hay, Christian Science lecturer from Indianapolis, Indiana, spoke in Torrance recently on the importance of individual rights.

Mrs. Hay, a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship, spoke at the church, 218th St. and Manuel Ave. under the auspices of the First Church of Christ Scientist. She was introduced by Mrs. Norma L. Spall, second reader.

Councilmen, Chamber of Commerce Officials Guests on Harbor Junket

The Port of Los Angeles was host to 25 Torrance City and Chamber of Commerce Officials to a tour of the Los Angeles Harbor on Wednesday, Oct. 14.

The tour started at the ferry building in San Pedro aboard the new motor cruiser owned by the Harbor Commission. Box lunches were served during the visit, which covered every section of the world's largest man-made harbor. Troy Garrison, public relations official for the port, conducted the tour through arrangements with the Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

City officials making the trip included Councilmen Willys G. Blount, J. A. Beasley, George A. Bradford, and Robert Jahn, City Manager George Stevens, and Assistant City Manager Chapman Bone.

Representing the chamber were J. H. Paget, president; R. S. Pyle, vice president; Fred W. Mill, past president; and Jim Becker, Fred Brunner, Bob Morris, Clifford Nickle, George Post, C. N. Rucker, Bill Shawger, and

The Early Bird gets to Learn.

Across the country hundreds of thousands of early risers are going to school while they sip their breakfast coffee at home. They're studying college chemistry every weekday morning on "Continental Classroom," a coast-to-coast television program.

UNION CARBIDE, one of the companies providing financial support for Continental Classroom, is vitally interested in raising standards of education. Here in Torrance, CARBIDERS receive educational refunds amounting to half their tuition for school and college courses that relate to their work.
